

Up-to-date as of spring 2021

For each title, where the date is shown in BOLD, it is the date of publication; where it is in ordinary type, it refers to the year of the descriptive and illustrated printed Catalogue in which it appeared, followed by the page number. A very few copies of some of the Catalogues are available to buy from the Library at a cost of £5 including p&p. They are collector's items and well worth owning.

(CM) after the reference indicates a Carnegie Medal winner.

(ML) after the reference indicates a Mariners Library title.

(WB) after the reference indicates a title reviewed by AR under the pseudonym William Blunt
